

BCMS Project Access
Winner 1998
Innovations in American Government Award

“Western North Carolina Project Access Program Receives Premier Cares Award.”
Business Wire 15 Jan. 2003.

Sturgeon, Jeff. “Group to Pursue Plan for Uninsured; Roanoke Valley Doctors Group to Contribute $125,000 Over 5 Years for Possible Plan.” The Roanoke Times & World News 17 May 2003.

Sturgeon, Jeff. “For Uninsured, Medical Help May Be in Sight.” Roanoke Times & World News 6 Mar. 2003.

“Health Care Initiative Win-Win Proposition.” The News & Record [Greensboro, NC] 16 Nov. 2002.

Crane, Misti. “Federal Grant: Better Health Care on Way for County’s Uninsured.” The Columbus Dispatch 3 Oct. 2002.

Corwin, Tom. “Augustans Approve Health Care Plan for the Poor, Uninsured.” The Augusta Chronicle 6 Nov. 2001.

Corwin, Tom. “Uninsured Patients Get Focus.” The Augusta Chronicle 9 Oct. 2001.

“Medical Society’s Concept Sounds Like a Real Winner.” The News & Record [Greensboro, NC] 27 Nov. 2000.

Hall, Kerry. “Group Seeks Free, Steady Medical Care for Area Poor; A Local Medical Group Hopes Doctors, Hospitals and Other Providers Will Volunteer Their Services to Help Thousands of Uninsured Residents.” The News & Record [Greensboro, NC] 23 Nov. 2000.

Corwin, Tom. “Systems Prove Uninsured Care Can See Success Emanuel County, Savannah Find Methods to Expand Health Services, Providing Example for Other Cities.” The Augusta Chronicle 29 Oct. 2000.

Corwin, Tom. “Augusta Explores Models for Indigent Health Care.” The Augusta Chronicle 15 Oct. 2000.

“Look to the Hills for Health Care Reform.” The Morning Star [Wilmington, NC] 3 July 1999.

“Smart Start, Buncombe County Project Win American Government Awards.” The Associated Press 22 Oct. 1998.